The Beatrix Potter Country Cookery Book

Synopsis

Beatrix Potter achieved her own kitchen in 1913 at the age of 47, when she married William Heelis, a country solicitor, and set about the art of simple cooking. She had no previous experience of such matters, but was determined to live and eat in the way the pair of them preferred, which was countrified and simple, as different as possible from the rigid, conventional, well-to-do style of her parents.
