Prezi offers complete new possibilities for the visualization of information. But how will Prezi do as a presentation tool for corporate presentations? How will we make sure it will be taken as seriously on Board level as Powerpoint? This guide is intended for managers and other professionals who are interested in Prezi and want to use it for their Board- and other presentations. Prezi for Managers stands out from all other guides by not presenting Prezi as a Powerpoint alternative, but rather as an extension of the tool we all know so well. No matter what others tell you: you will still need Powerpoint while making corporate prezis. The focus of Prezi for Managers therefore is to use the strong points of both Powerpoint and Prezi to create stunning Board presentations. This March 2014 edition will cover all relevant aspects of any board presentation, such as:â

-  Defining a structure for your preziâ
-  The basics of the prezi editorâ
-  How to make corporate templates in Preziâ
-  Agenda slides in Preziâ
-  Formatting text in Preziâ
-  Embedding videos and audioâ
-  Formatting images in Powerpoint or Preziâ
